Cut out the strips and put them in the right order to tell the story.

The child swims back with the manta rays

The child hangs onto the boat but falls overboard

The child is swimming in the water all alone

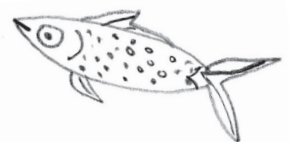

The child sails into a big storm

The child gets back on the boat and sails away

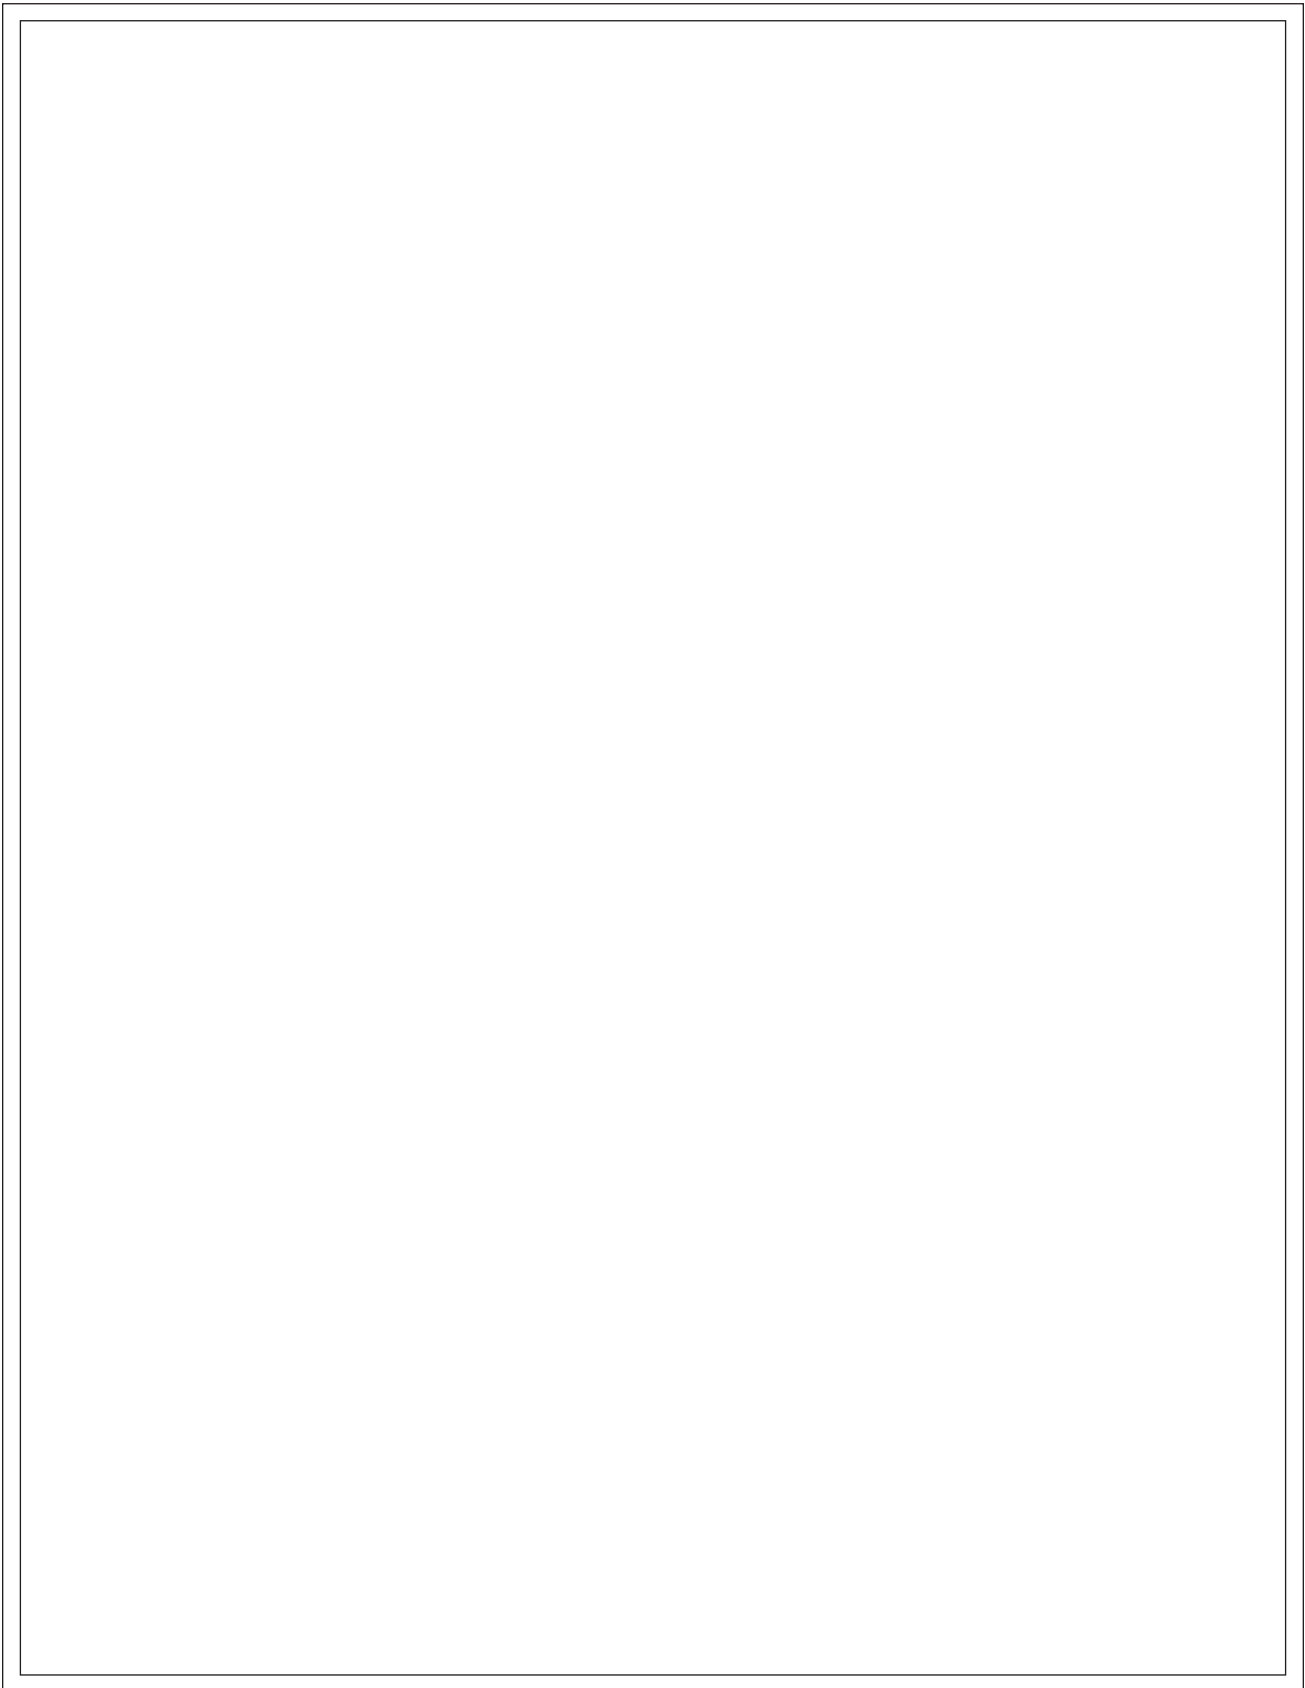

The child takes a key from the octopus

The child gets in the boat and raises the anchor

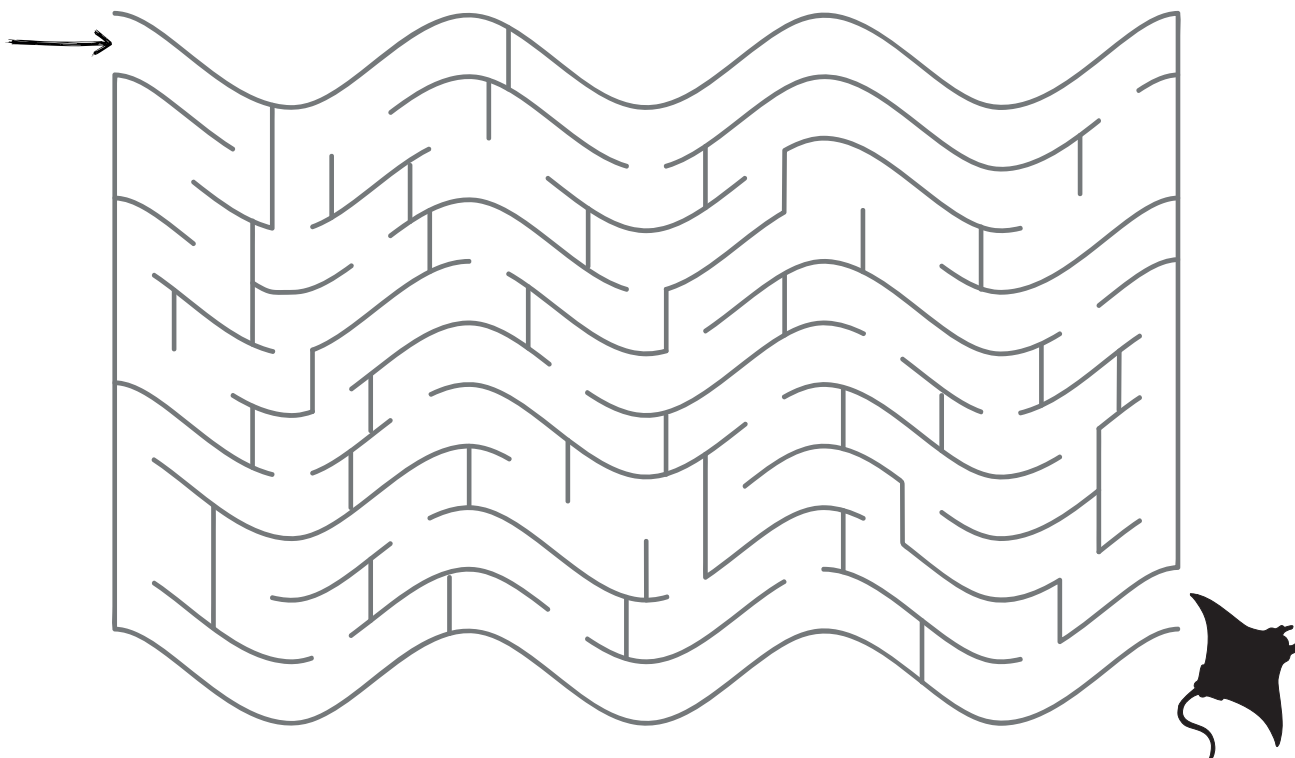

The child's head dips under the water to see wonderful things

What would your boat/ship look like if you were to go on an adventure?
Draw your design below.

Can you find the way to the manta ray?

Help the octopus to the key.
